WELCOME

Part A of the October newsletter brings you all the results from the 2017 Australian Masters Squash Championships held in Ballarat during the first two weeks of September.

The Trans Tasman Test Series between Australia and New Zealand was played immediately prior (first 2 tests) and straight after the Individual Championships. Australia dominated the series winning all 3 tests.

There were 261 (Queensland 69, Victoria 66 and NSW 60) participants in the Individual and 339 (NSW 97, Victoria 74 and Queensland 54) in the teams event.

Congratulations to all the newly crowned National Champions:

“As I said at the individual presentation dinner, one of the reasons that I support the Masters with sponsorship is that it is like a Festival of Squash. The players are playing for the joy of the game.

Masters Squash is a great reminder of the reason we all started playing in the first place. The love for the game and the challenge of perfecting it does not diminish with age!

We are very proud of our sponsorship partnership with the AMSA. It allows us to support those that are the greatest supporters of our game Australia wide and we get a front row seat to watch some of the worlds greatest ever players!”

The Peter Wright OAM Award

The Peter Wright OAM Award is awarded to someone who, in Peter's view, has made a significant and valuable contribution to Masters Squash locally and nationally.

As a guide the recipient needs to have been involved in Masters Squash for 10 years or more; played in ten (10) or more Australian Masters Squash Championships has been involved in the administration of Masters Squash at a local level and/or national level for five (5) years or more and be a respected fair-minded player and/or official who has supported squash.

The 2017 Award Winner

Gaye Mitchell from Tasmania was awarded the Peter Wright OAM Award for her contribution to squash.

Gaye has won 9 Australian Championships in her age division, 1 World Championship, played in 6 Trans-Tasman Test Series and has been Secretary to the Tasmania Masters Squash Association for 11 years.

A well deserved recipient.

2017 Australian Masters Squash Champions CONGRATULATIONS

Australian MASTERS CHAMPIONS

The Judith Goadby Memorial Award

The Judith Goadby Memorial Award is in memory of Judith Goadby, an enthusiastic, tireless and much loved member of the Australian Masters squash family, who passed away suddenly in 1999. Judith was a key member of both the Victorian and Australian Masters Squash Associations and a Board Member of the Victorian Squash Federation and Vice President of Squash Australia.

Her love and enthusiasm for squash and the spirit in which she played the sport, endeared her to all. Judith embodied all that Masters Squash continues to strive for. In all associations there are people like Judith who are dedicated and make significant and important contributions to Masters Squash. The Award is awarded to a player who embodies the spirit and enthusiasm Judith had for Masters Squash as a lower grade player, not necessarily a winner, and also an administrator.

Judith Goadby

The 2017 Award Winner

Ed Jennings from Western Australia was awarded the Judith Goadby Memorial Award. Ed has been a tireless worker for Western Australian squash players for many decades at club, state and national levels.

Ed has served in various capacities on the WA Masters Squash Committee for over 20 years. As a very well known member of the masters squash community, Ed contributes widely to all Masters events, both on court and behind the scenes. His enthusiasm and warm friendly persona endears him to all.
