Editorial

Congratulations to Nick Calvert winning the ANC Premier as well as being named the Squash Australia 2017 Junior Squash Player of the Year.

Congratulations to Alex Eustace on his doubles success with Rex Hedrick and Ella Burge for winning the ANC: A Grade Ladies.

With only 34 days before the 2018 Commonwealth Games begin ... the excitement is building!

Tickets are still available and they are reasonably priced so here is your best chance to witness live world class squash action on home soil.

It might be the last time you get to see CG Heroes Rachael Grinham and David Palmer in action. Come on make an effort ... let's get right behind our Aussie athletes

Queensland would like to wish the Australian CG Team every success in April.

We are also very fortunate to be able to cheer for two of our own superstars: Rachael Grinham and Zac Alexander will be in doubles action.

Grinham is no stranger to winning CG medals but winning one on the Gold Coast would be the "icing on the cake" to what has been a stellar career.

Alexander meanwhile will be searching for his first CG medal. He has won a WDC medal with partner David Palmer but winning a CG medal on home soil would be an unforgettable experience.

Good luck ...

REFLECTIONS

ROBYN PRENTICE

Reflections: Robyn Prentice

When asked to provide a profile of my life by the QMSA, my thoughts immediately took me back to where Squash started for me. Like many Aussies, many of my base skills started with tennis. Such a great sport too - social, competitive and challenging. But if it rains - well that's another story.

I was an avid tennis player in my youth and could often be seen cycling across Toowoomba in all weathers to play tennis fixtures. Some great ladies at Warraghi Tennis Club in Bridge Street Toowoomba would guide a few keen youngsters like myself and in return we had to roll and mark the courts before we played.

Within a few years of playing tennis, I had reached A grade and probably would have stuck with it – except in 1961, the Austral Motors social club in Toowoomba had a squash night at Russ Brown's squash courts.

My first memory of squash was running into the wall heavily and stunning myself with a nasty knock! I was so used to running over the sidelines in tennis that my spatial awareness was limited!

For all that, the first moment I tried to hold that smaller racquet and the even smaller black ball in my hand, I realised I had discovered a greater passion. Strangely enough, on the same night, I was approached by one of the local women players to play fixtures and, by the way, any chance you could become our Results Secretary?

For the next 27 years I played in the local competitions, both in the mens and womens competition, as well as travelling to Brisbane for many years to get stronger womens matches against the existing Queensland team members.

While achieving my personal squash goals and raising a family well was hugely important to me, my life as a volunteer for Toowoomba Squash began in 1962 and I was fortunate to be a part of keeping Squash alive in Toowoomba and South East Queensland in roles as Coach, Coach Educator, Publicity Officer, Secretary, Treasurer, and then Southern Region Coordinator from 1984-1988.

It saddens me greatly to see that Toowoomba Squash is under threat with the distinct possibility that there may be no courts operating in the very near future. It would be so beneficial if those in positions of authority could see the benefits to the community of continuing to offer squash in a multi purpose facility.

Toowoomba has produced so many sporting legends over the years, in many sports – it would be shameful for the citizens of Queensland's largest inland city to be without the choice to pursue our great game. What other sport offers the opportunity for families to play together in a sun safe and weather proof amenity to maintain their health and well being.

A life highlight for me was being one of a number of Toowoomba sportspeople who were honoured in 1993 by the Toowoomba City Council for their achievements and contribution to their sport. A sporting oval in Toowoomba was named for all of those who were honoured.

Other proud Aussie moments include being named the Darling Downs Sports Star of the Year in 1985 and receiving an Australia Day Sports Award in the same year. Receiving the Australian Sports Medal in 2000 is another personal highlight.

Late in 1970, I took on a Management position with the Bell Street Centre in Toowoomba and started my coaching career as I was passionate to build Squash at all levels, especially Juniors.

My first Queensland Senior Team representation came in 1971 and it was a busy life with a young child, running a Squash Centre and training and coaching.

Toowoomba squash was booming in those early years with new Centres being built and the competition was very tough. Much training in Toowoomba and travelling to Brisbane tournaments assisted my game improvement and in 1965 I won my first Toowoomba championship and continued to hold the title for 18 of the next 23 years.

During a social visit to Brisbane by my Toowoomba Club, a passing comment from one of the Queensland Squash Committee members, Alan Booker, changed my direction and I set a goal to play in the Queensland team. Quite the task given the players I was competing against were already Australian and World Champions such as Heather Mackay, Jenny Irving, Marion Jackman.

In 1971, after the birth of my first son 15 months earlier, I was selected to wear the Queensland colours and went on to represent the team for 13 of the next 17 years. At the maturing age of 43, I played in my last Queensland team!

TIME FOR NEW GOALS !

In 1984 I ventured into my first Masters Squash tournament in Adelaide and absolutely loved the friendly atmosphere with players of all levels and ages coming together to enjoy squash, both socially and on the court. It was still a competitive environment but at a different level to what I was used to in Open Squash and I loved it.

When an opportunity to play for Australia in the Trans Tasman Series presented itself, I was elated. Whilst my career had been extensive in playing against many of Australia's great players, I did not have the opportunity to play for Australia in the early years.

For the next 4 years I played and was successful in Masters events at Local, State, National and International levels culminating with a World 40+ title in Auckland and representing Australia in the Trans Tasman Series from 1984-1988. So many friends made along the way are still a special part of my life.

Reflections: Robyn Prentice

When asked what was the match that stood out as most memorable I bring to mind the final of the World 45 Plus event in Sydney, when I returned from Canada to challenge Heather McKay. Heather has been and still is my squash idol and to see myself challenging her for a World Masters Title was quite the task! Heather was too good for me on the day but I was comforted that I challenged her in a competitive 4 set match.

In 1984 I was appointed to a Part Time position by Queensland Squash Association as Coaching Coordinator for Southern Region (SEQ including Gold & Sunshine Coast). I spent the next 4 years looking after the needs of 40 Clubs in that region.

I was privileged during this time to be a part of building the Region to its strongest in many years by running Coaching & Refereeing clinics and coach education sessions in outlying areas where little pods of juniors emerged to play a junior tournament circuit in the region.

Toowoomba then boasted a 40 strong junior program with accredited coaches working and travelling with the Toowoomba Junior Team. This Queensland Squash initiative was of huge benefit to the whole State but unfortunately when the government grant ran out, so did many of the initiatives.

In 1989 another big chapter of my life opened up with a move to Canada to take a position as Head Squash Coach at the Royal Glenora Club in Edmonton. Lester and I had taken separate ways and the opportunity to further my professional coaching career and to support my youngest son was a good option.

My life as a Squash Professional in a Canadian club was most rewarding and after setting many goals for their Squash program, I ended my tenure there in 1998 having achieved all I had set out to do.

Great memories of my 9 plus years in Canada:

- 1990 - 1997 Sport Outreach Coach - Canada
- 1993 - 1995 Squash Canada National Teams Committee
- 1994 - Head Squash Coach - Canada Winter Games
- 1995 - Squash Director - World Firefighters Games - Edmonton
(great scenery that year)
- 1993 - Squash Professionals Award Alberta
- 1998 - Squash Alberta Presidents Award

With my passion for Masters Squash in Australia, I was keen to get this going in Canada and happy to say that I was a part of implementing the Western Canadian Masters Team Championships which still runs today.

In 1998, I returned to Australia quite burnt out from some very intense though rewarding years in Canada, and found myself on another roller coaster of learning new skills for earning an acceptable living outside of Squash Coaching.

Reflections: Robyn Prentice

In closing, suffice to say that I feel privileged that my life path has had much joy, many successes, disappointments and disillusionments, but I remain strong in knowing that the friendships I have made along the way will remain strong and special to me and the future remains open to whatever I choose to create for myself.

During my coaching life in both Canada and Australia, I have been privileged to coach and mentor many incredible young players and I have been rewarded with seeing these youngsters put in a lot of hard work and emerge from being barely able to hit a ball to the levels they have achieved. This gratification keeps my love of squash alive.

I look forward to spending many more years contributing to Junior Squash Development and Masters Squash in Australia.

So GET ACTIVE players! Support your clubs! Join the Queensland Masters Squash Association if you haven't already done so! Age is no barrier! There is always another challenge just around the corner. And, who knows, when you wear the green and gold for the first time, you'll be glad you did. There's no feeling quite like it.

Happy Squashing!

The Sozzie Report

Welcome to another year of Masters Squash in Queensland!

Our first tournament for the New Year was a One Day Singles tournament at the Acacia Ridge squash centre on the 14th January. This was a timed event with all entrants playing 3 matches during the day, with the main aim to encourage those members and non-members who are unable to commit to a 2-day tournament due to other commitments. And that was lucky, since the day was probably the hottest January day on record! But as expected the contingent of Masters players who competed handled the hot and humid conditions with ease.

The next tournament after that was the traditional Australia Day long weekend event at Hervey Bay on the 27th and 28th January 2018. As usual, hot and humid conditions prevailed, but the 80-strong field enjoyed the event thoroughly. It was good to some of our members from the north (Bundy, Rocky, etc) competing at this event.

Southport Squash Centre hosted the next tournament on the 24 and 25th February. New centre operator Howard Halter was very pleased with a full complement of 88 players. Again, humid conditions prevailed, with a little bit of rain thrown in during the weekend to make things interesting on the courts.

The next tournament at Stafford may have already been run and won (depending on when we publish this newsletter). This is the annual Presidents vs Patron event, and I'm sure Murray Gaydon will be selecting a competitive team again this year to challenge my team. Good luck to all!

Our next tournament on the calendar is the state titles to be held at the Acacia Ridge Squash Centre. We will be following the scoring format that will be used later in the year at the Australian Titles in Tasmania in September. That is, we are moving to PAR 15 for all age groups at this tournament.

We will commence competition on the Friday night, then continuing Saturday and Sunday, with a Presentation and BBQ on the Sunday evening. A Dinner Dance will again be held on the Saturday night, and we have just secured Sarah Fitz-Gerald to be our Guest Speaker for the evening.

Sarah is well known to most members, as she not only won 5 Open World titles in her heyday, but has also won 2 Masters World Titles as well. Entries are now open and you can get in early for the LOW LOW price of $90 up to the 1st April – this includes Tournament Entry, 1 ticket to the Dinner Dance and the Sunday evening presentation and BBQ.

Please visit SportyHQ to enter on-line, or contact Helen Watkins to enter the old-fashioned way. The QMSA AGM will also be held on the Sunday, details of which will be sent to all members shortly. Anyway, that'll do for now ... see you 'round the courts!

SHINING STARS

Welcome to the 1st Edition of the Australian Junior Squash Player Annual.

This publication will cover the World Junior Championships each year together with all Platinum and Gold events run in Australia. We will also cover the AJC Teams event.

We will name our Five Shining Stars for 2017. The Shining Stars will be determined by a points system which only examines Platinum and Gold events.
