ISSUE 33

November was a relatively quiet month but we still managed to have 3 terrific events: the Busselton Sebel Open, the final SGPS event at Manjimup for the juniors and the Spring Teams Challenge for those ultra keen Masters players.

Ryan Callegari and his team at Busselton pulled off the near impossible ... running an open tournament with just 2 courts! They took good care of 60 odd players and by all accounts everyone had a good time.

The SGPS saw the crowning of the series champions. Congratulations to Eric Marsh and Michaela Pratt for accumulating the most points on the Southern Grand Prix Circuit.

Speaking of Michaela I would like to recognise and thank her for all her fabulous contributions to the SWAN this year. She has not only been ultra consistent but entertaining as well!

Thanks Michaela.

Congratulations to Nigel French and Mike Cornish for delivering another successful series. I hope 2019 will be bigger and better than 2018 ... if that's possible.

Finally, the Spring Teams Challenge was held with 6 divisions taking part. Congratulations to all the winners.

The Masters also held their Xmas Function at the International on the Water Hotel in Ascot.

Merry Xmas everyone!

BOARDROOM

President's Pen

On behalf of Board of WA Squash, I would firstly like to extend an enormous thank you to all the volunteers involved in making this great game so enjoyable, taking on organising tasks with Clubs, Social Pennants, Masters, Juniors and not forgetting members of the Board, all, who have provided many hours working to ensure the longevity and viability of the game in Western Australia.

On Saturday 8th December we will extend our thanks to our Life Members, volunteers and the Junior State Squad, with an Awards and Volunteers function to recognise all these people, who through their efforts work for the game of Squash in WA.

Board Member, Life Member and former Champion player Dean Williams will provide an overview surrounding the history of Squash in WA at the event.

This same event will also bid farewell to the Terrace Squash courts, due to developers taking over and unfortunately, knocking down the courts and surrounds. Therefore, as much as this will be a sad day, we must take the opportunity ahead to make our own history.

Another Life Member and Board Member Neil Butler will provide information regarding the process and progress of the WA Squash Office departing Terrace and moving to Westminster.

The Office will be closed from 18th December 2018 and will reopen on 7th January 2019. The future ahead will have many hurdles to overcome, to ensure Squash can expand. To do this the Board, as part of its Strategic Plan, will be looking forward to working with sub committees to concentrate on specific issues to see the vision for the future is fulfilled.

At the function, specific Awards will be presented to Coach of the Year, Referee of the Year and Volunteer of the Year. Nomination forms were sent to each club seeking nominations for each category and congratulations in advance to all the winners.

This segment is usually written by President Glenn Hitch. Glenn is out of the country with his wife, awaiting the arrival of their child. I'm sure all of us extend our best wishes for a safe arrival.

In closing, again I thank all involved with Squash in WA and wish each and everyone a safe, happy and enjoyable Christmas period.

Regards

Trevor Cruickshank (Vice President)

Here is a copy of the letter being sent to the Local Council

City of Belmont
215 Wright Street,
BELMONT 6104.

Dear Sir,

We have been informed that the Belmont Squash Courts are being sold.

The owner advises us that he intends closing the courts at the end of the year and selling the property. He does not intend to sell the property as a going concern and the courts will no longer remain as a squash centre. We have been advised that the property will then revert to a residential zoning.

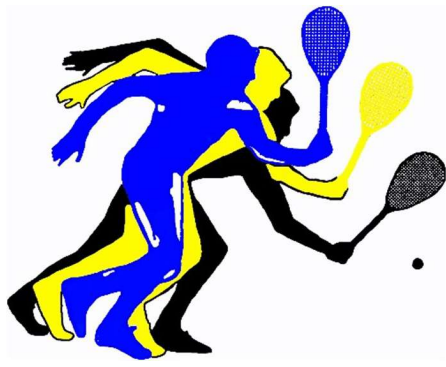

The Belmont Squash courts were opened by the Wheatley family in 1973 when the Australian Squash Championships saw the official opening of the Centre . At that time, they were the most up to date courts and the pinnacle of all centres in W.A. Over the past 45 years, the squash centre has been an integral part of the Belmont sporting community.

We do not want to see our sporting community lose this very important part of history.

The courts are used by the Belmont Squash Club, as well as many individuals in the Belmont community. We operate as a club playing many other clubs throughout the Perth metropolitan area which brings many individuals into the Belmont area. There is also a seniors group that play squash on a weekly basis, which caters for the older people in our community. There are always school groups that use the centre as well, for their sports facility, mainly throughout the winter months.

We have many members that are devastated at the planned closure of the centre as well as many individuals that have indicated that they will lose a facility that they regularly use as part of their keep fit regime.

Is there any possibility that the City of Belmont might look at keeping the squash centre operating as an active part of our community?

BUSSELTON SQUASH CLUB

2018 BUSSELTON-SEBEL OPEN

Currently the Busselton Squash Club resides out of The Sebel Resort Busselton's 2 court facility.

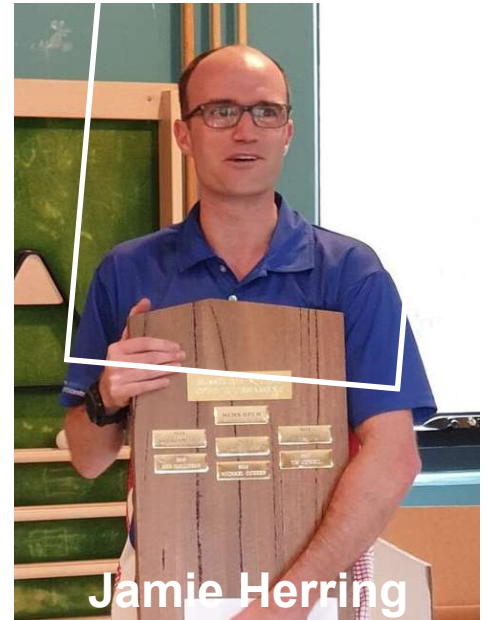

The Sebel were a major sponsor and the tournament was packaged up as a weekend getaway with accommodation and entry as part of one price for all non-local players. It was a very relaxed atmosphere and the feedback has been phenomenal.

<https://www.thesebel.com/western-australia/the-sebel-busselton/>

The other major sponsor was Hillzeez Down South Surf Shops who have been in business for 30 years in the south west region and always a major supporter of sporting events and bringing people to our region.

Players and families came from Perth, Mandurah, Bunbury and Esperance. Off the back of the success of the tournament the club is looking at doing a teams based event in the middle of next year in addition to the Open in November.

The success of the tournament helped strengthen the Club's position with The Sebel and we have been given the green light to occupy the space for the whole of 2019.

Jamie Herring

Linda Towell

The club continues to pursue local and state government for a long term footprint in upcoming recreational facility redevelopments. With the impending opening of the Busselton-Margaret River airport the Busselton Squash Club firmly believes that it can be a major destination for squash events nation wide and join the other sports in cementing Busselton as the events capital of Regional WA.

We were visited at the tournament by our local State MP Libby Mettam who is also the Shadow Minister for Tourism. Libby spent an hour at the club watching some great match ups and discussing the future of squash with the committee.

The Busselton Squash Club would like to thank all of those players who supported the event in its inaugural format. They have each played a part in securing the future of Squash in the south west.

The event attracted 60 players from all over Western Australia. In a two-day, two-night hit out the competition was fierce in both the men's and women's divisions alike.

The Women's Open final saw Mirrabooka Squash Club rivals Linda Towell and Fiona Whooley, with Towell ultimately claiming victory in a gruelling four-set match retaining her undefeated streak for the weekend.

HILLZEEZ

Down South Surf Shops

A Country Week rematch took place in the Men's Open final between Bunbury's Jamie Herring and Mandurah's Dwayne Simons.

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

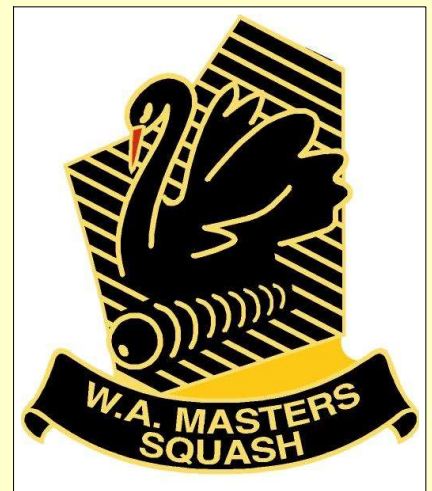

WA Masters Spring Teams Challenge

This year's Masters Team Challenge was a fantastic, fun and highly successful event. With a good representation from Busselton and Bunbury squash clubs, the competition was fierce but friendly.

This event is growing in popularity, and rightly so. Linda McBrierty and Ed Jennings put in an enormous amount of organisation to ensure the smooth running of the tournament.

Thanks also to Brian Roby who created the draw and had to do some swift amendments as late entries and the odd withdrawal turned up.

Again the WA Masters Committee held the AGM immediately following the trophy presentation, and the continuing and new committee members look forward to another great Masters year.

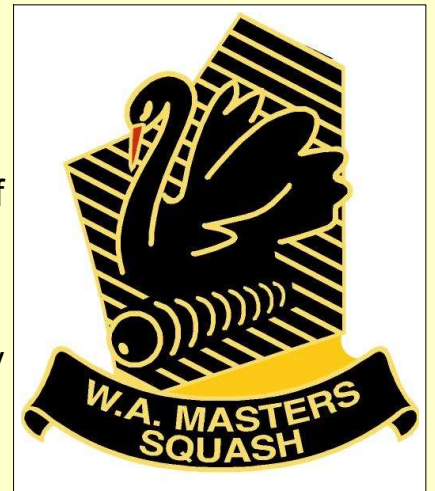

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

WA Masters Christmas function

This year our new social function committee member, Chris Farley, did a wonderful job in selecting and booking a venue for the Christmas lunch. The International on the Water in Ascot venue and the buffet format lunch allowed for plenty of mixing and mingling (players and drinks), and we were able to stay beyond the booked time to continue both.

Leading up to the function Chris worked hard to continuously remind masters squashies of the event; there's usually so much going on around this time of year so Chris kept the emails and information flowing, which was no doubt responsible for the very pleasing numbers at the lunch.

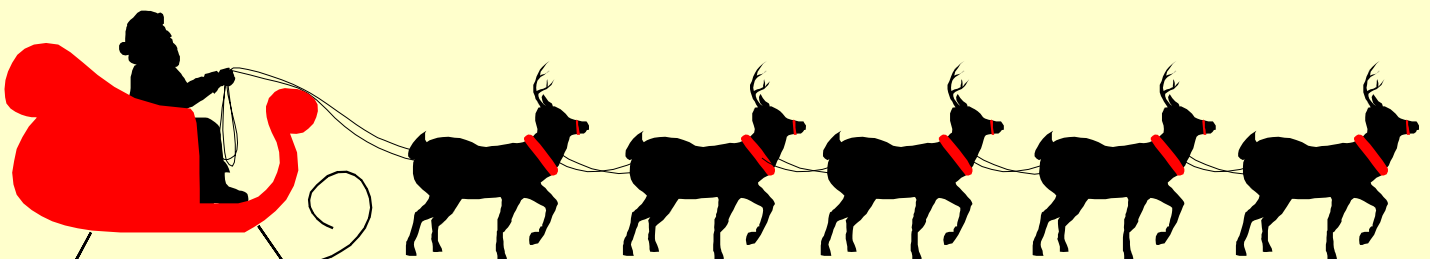

We had a claim to fame from Geoff Warner during the afternoon. He claims to hold the record for the longest unbroken pennant career in the metro area. Geoff claims to have played 43 years of pennant seasons without even one break, playing first for Cambridge, then Scarborough Sportsmans Club and he is now playing for Mullaloo. Can anyone out there beat that? Let the committee know.

The afternoon had a few notable moments, apart from Geoff's remarkable claimed achievement. Our Masters patriarch and Over 90s National Champion was there enjoying the day with the gorgeous Joyce and everyone. There was a distinct lack of Strawberry Champagne, but that didn't daunt the Mullaloo die-hards who stylishly improvised by simply adding said strawberries to the 'ordinary' Champagne and got on with the job at hand.

Also, Yvonne Trotter, Cindy Parsley and Sue and Paul Hillier spent some happy time during the afternoon reminiscing about the Worlds in Virginia, and with very good reason. Finally, all the Masters committee members were presented with Recognition Certificates from the WA State Government in recognition of their volunteer work throughout the year. A big thanks also goes to the committee from all Masters members.

Finally, it's never too soon to start thinking and planning for the Nationals, which will be held on the Gold Coast in 2019: 2-13 September.

All that remains now is to wish everyone a safe and happy Christmas and a happy, healthy and squash-filled New Year.

The Blue Gum Squash Club (Inc) was established in 1977 and operates out of Squashworld Brentwood and is located in Disney Street, Brentwood.

Recognising: Peter Rinaldi

Story by Jan Ingram

This year Peter has been playing pennant squash for 50 years. He usually plays squash 3 times a week: pennants, social and Masters. Plus he has been to 8 Australian Masters Championships and played in most of the tournaments for WA Masters Squash over the years.

This season his Blue Gum team mates got a special shirt made up for the team with 50 on it and a few other members of Blue Gum Squash Club have worn them whilst playing pennants. His team organised a meal on Wednesday 28th and then went back to the squash courts for a celebration of his commitment to squash over 50 years.

CONGRATULATIONS

The last hurrah of the Southern Grand Prix Series was held on the 24th of November, coincidentally the same day that Freddie Mercury passed away and if you're looking for the link, it's We are the champions! - Just a quick flashback to the AJC, (sorry, had to get it in somehow).

The event was run by the dynamic duo- Mike Cornish and Nigel French, with great matches, sportsmanship and fun all around, and yes, that did include watching Nigel bring his style to the court. Young Daniel son and super Jhett didn't know what hit them with cyclone Nigel working them over.

I was getting bored from sitting on the fence, I couldn't decide which tournament offered the best food, so I decided to add two new categories - one for the best squash dinner, which of course, goes to the Esperance mob, with the pig on the spit, and best lunch, which Manjimup has just claimed, due to the buffet of fresh produce, pastas, salad, make your own wraps, and a heap more.

I also think another joke is in the running for the best/worst Dad joke, being: what do the sheep do on the beach? Have a BABA-que.

As far as tournament results go, there were 4 divisions, with Divisions 1-3 being a Swiss draw with 8 players, and Division 4 being a round-robin. Div 4 was taken out by Ben Robins who will surely find himself climbing a rung on his squash ladder as his career continues its upward trajectory. Mathew Rogers, from Manjimup, finished 2nd and compatriot Delyth Phillips-Johns, claimed 3rd.

Division 3 was a bit of a family affair, with Dallas Johnson taking the honours, and his brother Lewis coming 3rd. Harvey Pianta split the pair to finish 2nd. Coach Cornish would have been pleased to see the Manji Mozzies clean sweep that podium.

In Division 2, Caitlin Pratt from Narrogin, reversed a prior result against her zippy opponent and current U11 Australian Champion Eric Marsh, who was unlucky to come up against a Caitlin in red hot form. Caitlin in 3. Jaxon (who does) Wells, from Marmion earned 3rd place.

In the premier Division, Callum "ninja turtle" Blakey, from Marmion won, with Jackson "bunny" Kiely coming second and a much improved (I'm saying that because he smoked me!) hard hitting Mad Max Forbes coming in 3rd. Callum Blakey is starting to resemble John Farnham ... How many last tournaments/concerts can a person have?

The Grand-Prix Series was now officially finished for 2018, with prizes going to the female and male runners-up and winners, calculated from the accumulation of points won over the course of the 4 events held in the South-West region.

A three-way tie between Max Forbes, Eric Marsh and Callum Blakey had Nigel the mathematical genius applying an algorithm to determine the bell ringer. Energetic Eric Marsh was declared this year's winner with Mad Max Forbes being the runner up.

For the girl's winner, a modest yours truly had a win and super mover Hannah Slyth from Brentwood came 2nd. Whilst on the topic of Hannah, I do have to question Hannah's camouflage skills, hiding behind a sprinkler on the golf course fairway, even though she was wearing a green shirt, just doesn't cut it. Given her Grand-Prix results, I think she should stick to squash.

If anyone is interested in going on a health kick, speak to the French's, as they cleaned up in the post tournament goodies. Winners of a massive hamper of green produce in the raffle, as well as 2 kgs of cherries. I hope Bella and Eva have been eating their greens.

The other prize, 25 avocados was won by my family, so its smashed avo with whatever google tells us you can have avo with, but I will be honest I couldn't bring myself to try avocado milkshake, it just doesn't seem right.

A massive, massive thanks goes to Franzine and her team of willing helpers for both organising the delicious lunch for everybody, and rallying sponsors to donate the food for the healthiest raffle. I have ever seen.

Eva French with Franzine Karamfiles

A big thank-you to Mike, the Tournament Referee, and Nigel, the Tournament Director for both running this tournament flawlessly, and also for organising the Southern Grand Prix series. Finally, thank-you to everyone who travelled the distance to the last country junior tournament for 2018.
