Robyn Prentice
President QMSA

As the dust settles on the 2019 Australian Masters Squash Championships on the Gold Coast, its time to reflect and acknowledge the components that led to its success.

As Co Chair and Team Leader for Event Coordination, Sponsorship and Media, I would like to acknowledge the huge support of all who gave their time, finances, commitment and energy to allow QMSA to host this event to its successful conclusion.

An entry list of 570 Masters Squash players giving all they had on the court in the true spirit of Masters Squash, together with their support groups and socialising with old and new friends off the court created the highest participation event in Australia for some years.

In acknowledging these corporate sponsors who made this event financially possible, I ask all squash enthusiasts to note their names and support them when seeking the services they offer. Financial sponsorship from -

Special acknowledgment goes out to my two Co Chairs –

HELEN WATKINS – Co Chair/ Team Leader: Tournament Director/ Draw Control/ Merchandise – over 600 matches in the first week of the Individual event, together with coordination of volunteers on control desks at 3 venues and followed by 23 Divisions of Teams Event. My mind is overcome with the number of phone calls, emails and draw checks that Helen was involved in and always with a smile.

Special congratulations to Helen on being awarded the prestigious Judith Goadby Award presented annually by Australian Masters Squash Association for her untiring work over many years for Masters Squash.

CHRISTINE GOODMAN – Co Chair/Secretary/ Team Leader: Functions.

Christine started 18 months prior to research the plethora of great function venues on the Gold Coast to narrow a list to what was described in the feedback as amazing venues that provided great food for the Welcome, VIP, Individual and Teams Presentation Dinner Dances.

The amount of venue visits, communications, table seating arrangements and budget checking for presenting major functions with up to 400 guests is mind boggling.

Highlights of the functions:

- VIP Function – we were privileged to have Gold Coast Mayor, the Honorable Tom Tate and his wife Ruth present to give his support to the event and offered his pleasure in the successful use of Carrara Squash Centre as a legacy from Commonwealth Games.
- Former World Champion Rhonda Clayton (Thorne) was a special guest who may be inclined to pick up her racket again after seeing the Masters in action
- Rita Paulos - Former Coach to World Champion Chris Robertson and other countless Australian players over a lifetime of playing and coaching and who also recently released her book “Simple Steps to Success” was a special guest

Special Mention goes to 11 Team Leaders who committed many hours of planning meetings and communications to give their expertise and input.

- MARISA ZAVATTARO – Vice President QMSA and Team Leader: Registration/Individual Trophies/Draw Support
- PETER KNAUTH – Treasurer QMSA and Team Leader: Finance control
- CATHY AUST – Team Leader: Website Coordination
- DEBBIE HALPERN – Team Leader: Marketing Promotion
- LEE CONROY – Co Team Leader: Raffles
- SHANNON ANDERSON - Co Team Leader: Raffles
- CRAIG STEWART – Team Leader: Photography
- ROBYNE BAMBERRY – Team Leader: Teams Trophies
- WALLY CHRISTENSEN – Team Leader: Transportation Shuttles

All aspects of the Team Leaders portfolios were supported by many support volunteers either prior to or during the event. Special thanks to – Liz Lopes, Andrew Sosimenko, Jan Whackett, Kathy Paterson, Steve Williams, Aaron Middleton, Andrew Elliott, Adrian Williams, Sue Hain, Stuart Hindle, Veronica Hindle, Kevin Bamberry, Pat Siciliano, Cathy Stubbs, Jo Files, Ruth Knight, Joy Williams.

Huge thank you to Adrian Williams for acting as our Volunteer Master of Ceremonies.

OUR DISTINCTIVE LOGO – How good was the logo? The Sun Surf Sand perspective of the Gold Coast was well reflected and looked great on the trophies, merchandise and all marketing resources. Thanks to Shirley Dorricott for the creation of the logo that was selected to be used for AMSC and also for organising the Team Badges.

QMSA 40th year Booklet – this was created to celebrate 40 years of Queensland Masters Squash and it was timely to be circulated for AMSC. Thanks to Deb Halpern and Ruth Knight for assisting me to finalise this momento.

Copies of this booklet will be emailed to QMSA financial members and a hard copy will also be available at Tournaments for $10.

VENUES – Three venues were required to host the necessary matches and a big shout out to David and Toni White and family at Nerang Squash and Waka Elers and his team at Gold Coast Squash together with the Squash Australia staff Rod Bannister, Jonathan Davies and Marc Wolpers at Carrara Squash for their support prior to and during the event. Very positive feedback was received to acknowledge how the centres were presented.

MEDIA – Thanks to Eric Summons for his insights in the early planning stages for media promotion which led to some very positive media coverage. Of special mention was the support of Squash Australia Public Relations Staff member, Chris Yeend, who was most supportive in promoting the media coverage that I was able to secure.

LIVE STREAMING – was a special effect that certainly was well received and a bonus to those players who could not make the trip. A BIG Thank you to Sponsors – ALBS Live Streaming, KUBER TAX SOLUTIONS and ADZGURU – for their support.

The participation of former World #1 John White (now Head Coach at Drexel University USA) competing in the 45+ Mens Open was a wonderful boost for everyone. It was particularly pleasing to see him playing his brother David in the final.

In closing, I believe that QMSA can stand tall and be proud of their presentation of the 2019 AMSC and thank Australian Masters Squash Association for the opportunity to showcase Queensland.

On a personal note, this event was the first tournament I have been involved in coordinating in Australia for many years and I totally enjoyed the experience and offer my personal thanks to all who supported my path prior to and during the event.

A special thank you to Craig Stewart, our Photographer Extraordinaire, for his thoughtful gift. I was touched and overwhelmed to receive this lovely keepsake of some of the photos of the event which I will treasure.

Apart from the great camaraderie and team work that I experienced, this event was made very special by my youngest son Gavin surprising me with his birthday gift by competing from Victoria in his first Masters Squash event where I was also able to compete.

I am sure QMSA will look forward to the next opportunity to host the AMSC but are also thankful it is a few years away yet. See you all in ADELAIDE for the 2020 AMSC!

Yours in Squash

PETER GILBEE : VIC

2019 AUSTRALIAN MASTERS CHAMPION

The Men's Over 55 Open final was a top contest between Peter Gilbee (Vic) and Warren Miller (Vic).

The field of 10 boasted two formidable former Masters Champions: Miller 10 titles and Dale Robbins (Qld) 9 titles.

Peter beat Robbins in a tight 2nd round match 8-11, 11-8, 11-9, 11-9 before beating the #1 seed Miller 11-8, 9-11, 11-4, 11-9 in the final.

90+ Masters Legend Chas Renner

What do you do when you run out of opponents? Well you win your age group for a start and then you challenge yourself by taking on the younger men!

Chas Renner from WA won the 90+ Open title to add to his 8 other National titles.

Most people would be happy just to get to 90 let alone be playing squash. I myself would be pleased to reach that milestone. Most importantly I'll be pleased just to be walking!

Chas you are such an inspiration to everyone. From juniors to seniors, I'm sure everyone is simply in awe of your achievements.

The goal now is to find another 90+ year old squashie who can challenge Chas. It won't be easy taking on the Master but it would be great to see two players in that age group next year!

CRAIG STEWART

We'll let Craig have the final word!

Just for fun as I know squash players love their stats ... so here is the breakdown of photos during the tournament.

Total images taken:

Week 1 ... 392, 489, 776, 607, 816, 1926, 710 = 5716 photos.

Week 2 ... 340, 1244, 422 = 2006.

Grand total of images taken 7722!!!

Edited and Published images: Week 1 - 109, 176, 130, 128, 316, 131, 63 = 1053! Week 2 - 93, 192, 60, 101 = 446.

Grand total of published photos ... 1499 images!

Let's not get the iPhone involved! LOL!
