Thank you to all the SWAN contributors for 2019. I want you to know that your contribution to this publication was very much appreciated.

I would like to recognise a few people who make a significant contribution: Sue Hillier, Michaela Pratt, Janis Haswell, Leanne French, Dean Williams, Glenn Hitch, Peter Siebert, Tyron Holloway, Sue Cowell, Tim Cowell and Mike Corren. You guys have been the backbone of this publication.

I encourage anyone with a desire to promote squash at any level (Club, State, Juniors, Masters, Professional) to consider contributing to this publication. It is so important that we do our absolute best to recognise players, coaches, volunteers and sponsors.

This is a great way to thank people. Everyone gets a kick out of seeing their name in an official document recognising their efforts, their generosity, their achievements.

I hope everyone in WA has a wonderful and safe Christmas. I hope 2020 brings you much joy and you achieve the goals you set yourself.

Good luck and cheers ...

BOARDROOM

President's Pen

Dear Squashies,

December is upon us and the festive season has well and truly commenced.

I write to you from Singapore, where our WA State Junior Team is currently touring, competing in the Singapore Junior Open, and challenge matches against local Clubs.

There are over 300 Juniors in the Open, and this should provide many fantastic matches for our WA Players, the team is excited and ready to go, such a fantastic experience for them all.

In reflection on 2019, I would like to take the opportunity to thank all volunteers involved in Squash, there are so many of you. To the WA Squash Board and Sub-committees, a heartfelt thank you for your support and 2020 is shaping up to be an exciting year for Squash in WA.

To the WA Squash Staff, Leonie Cole, Sue Hillier and in particular our extremely hard working CEO Dean Williams, thank you for all your efforts this year.

Wishing you all a very safe, happy and active Christmas and New Year!

Glenn Hitch

The 9th Edition of the SWAN featured a wrap up of the South West Grand Prix revealing the inaugural winner of the series Remi Young.

Mike Cornish together with Nigel and Leanne French managed the series and 4 years later we are bidding farewell (in some way) to that fantastic team. We all thank them sincerely.

Hopefully, 2020 will see a new team step up to manage the series which is vitally important for Country Squash and giving youngsters their first taste of playing tournaments.

DEAN'S DIARY

November was a very busy month with what seemed endless meetings with Sportwest, DSR, Govt of WA and University of WA. It started with the Australian New Zealand Sports Law Association (ANZSLA) which was introduced by Lord Sebastian Coe and the 2 day conference was a fascinating insight into all the aspects of sports law.

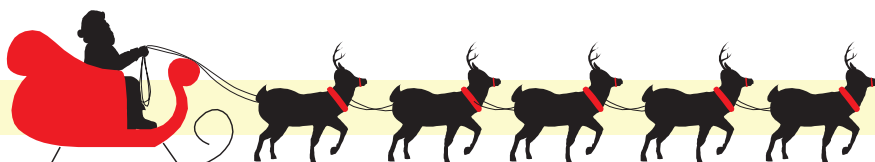

Meetings with Sportwest launching Unisport Games 2020 and The Australian Masters Games in 2021, both major events in Perth with a big squash following. WA was represented at the Squash Australia AGM in late November but we were unable to vote as we haven't settled our membership disagreement with them yet but we are confident that things may change for the better with a new President being appointed and 3 board members being voted off. A very productive month all round.

In keeping with my previous "Dean's Diary" and sharing some thoughts and experiences as a touring squash professional, I thought I would relive the 1984 French Open sponsored by Guy La Roche (The Mens after shave, etc). Like all tournaments when the seedings came out we all wanted to be on the other side of the draw to Jahangir as he was in rampant form having gone about 2 and a half years unbeaten at that stage hardly, dropping any games. I was fortunate to be seeded 4 and was drawn against my old foe Hiddy Jahan (seeded 2) as this was one of the first events we used the random seeding style.

I had a great run through to the semi's where I had a fierce battle with Hiddy (who was after revenge from the " 82 semi final in the World Open) and once again, I got the better of him in a very tight 4 games. Waiting for me was JK and it was scheduled for 11am on the sunday morning after getting off the court after midnight the night before and to say I was a bit knackered was an understatement.

I have highlighted this event because what was about to happen was briefly the shortest match ever played. JK was at his brilliant best and in no mood to have long rallies and with my fatigue he won the match 9/0, 9/0, 9/1 in 11 minutes (including the warm up) I would have been beaten 27-0 if the match referee hadn't awarded a stroke to me when it was clearly not ... so thanks!

The worst bit about this final was that the French people had just started getting into squash and they are always late attending sporting events and our match had finished when people were strolling in to see it. I'm sure the sponsors were not impressed but this is what it was like with JK ... he was ruthless and unforgiving.

Junior Squash Camp

29th – 30th January 2020

Venue: Squashworld Brentwood

Disney St, Brentwood

2 days of squash and fun for 9-15 year olds

For more information: www.wasquash.com.au

WA Squash ran a coaching course on 30 November and 1 December 2019 at the Belmont Squash Club.

Sue Hillier ran the course with assistance from Sue Cowell and Ken Watson.

It was great to hear that they all wanted to give something back and help others learn our great game.

Sue ran them through the principles of game based squash utilising the World Squash Federation tools.

On day 2, the participants delivered their session plans to juniors with varying abilities to mimic a junior club. This was valuable experience for the participants.

Course participants:

Damon Blakey – Marmion
Kiran Byles – Marmion
Leigh Kaye – Mirrabooka
Daniel Richardson – Mirrabooka
Serena Richardson – Mirrabooka
Katy Scott – Belmont
Jarrad Thomas – Moora
Stephan Weyers – Marmion
Jodie Wilson – Dampier
Remi Young – Marmion

Thanks to Belmont Squash for their hospitality.

It was a great weekend!

Melbourne Cup Day

Daniel Richardson organised the sweepstakes on the day, and Serena Richardson organised the catering.

A lovely afternoon was had by all involved.

2019 Mini Squash Visits with the Inflatable Squash Courts

Story by Tim Cowell

Photos supplied by Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School

As 2019 comes to an end, I can finally look back on a year which saw my coaching activities shift back to a junior participation focus with the inflatable squash courts and running several junior programs across Perth.

A few years back as one of our regional development officers, there was quite a few kms covered across WA delivering school programs and assisting our regional clubs with their junior and club programs, so it was refreshing to get back into the school system, but without the 4+ hour drives!

This year saw a slight restructure to the funding received from Healthway's SMARTER THAN SMOKING which essentially allowed our coaches to provide the squash clinics to primary schools free of charge. Previously the biggest road block for metro visits was their budget, so any cost involved often meant a "no" unless they could source funding from sporting schools.

A number of junior programs benefited from the programs in their area, with juniors attending Mirrabooka, Cambridge, Subiaco Kings, Brentwood and Vic Park programs after the visit with the Inflatable Squash courts. In fact the numbers at Brentwood's program practically doubled within a couple of weeks at the start of term 4 to see a regular 40 juniors attending each week!

Overall I visited 21 schools with the inflatable courts, 19 through Healthway's and a further 2 with Sporting Schools program. Total number of students seen was roughly 5000 students for the year. Including other coaches and on court programs with various highschoools and that figure is much higher.

Of course the first step is exposure. A number of these students when first asked never knew what squash was, now they do. The next step is to continue trying to capture more and more into our junior club programs.

Thank you to Healthway's for their continued support. It is great to hear funding is locked in for the next two years so we can continue the exposure effort all across WA to get more juniors playing squash!

The Manjimup Mozzies looked the goods at the final event in the South-West Grand Prix Series on Saturday the 23rd of November.

Dressed in their brand-new shirts, the team ran the tournament entirely using the SportyHQ software as well as supplying a buffet lunch of local produce, large enough to feed a small army.

The tournament was a great ending to the junior squash calendar of the year, with many tightly contested battles and questions asked of fitness and training regimes.

The first match played in the first round of Division 1 really set the scene for the whole tournament with the two eldest Marsh brothers, Daniel and Eric going to 4. All the games were separated by 2 points and it was great to see such a clash so early in the day.

Division one was eventually secured by local boy, Max

Forbes, who showed the local talent is as good as the local produce, defeating Daniel in 4 in the final. The speedy Aled Phillips Johns took home the plate.

Not to be outclassed by Division 1, the first-round match between Alexander Marsh and Harvey Pianta also went to five, with Alexander winning 12-10 in the 5th. This match had many long and quality rallies and it was great seeing the younger kids stepping up to the gauntlet. The winner of this division was Miles Heyward beating Isla McMullen in the final. The plate winner was Ashton Clements, who is appearing regularly on the tournament honours list.

Division 3 was a bit messed up, with only 3 players until late in the day, with reasons beyond ground control's control, leading to some late arrivals. oops! In the end Tyler Stone was 1st, Charlie Richardson 2nd and Brock Kitchen 3rd.

Division 4 was a round-robin, with some new faces. Jason Tony-Homan won this division, with Michael Kilrain coming second and Ashton Shields finishing third.

As this was the last Grand Prix tournament for the year, the points each played earned from entering and competing in the South-west tournaments were counted and the results were announced. Isla McMullen being crowned the female winner, and young Charlie Richardson being crowned the male winner. Won't be long until Charlie has more bounty in the trophy cabinet than Dad Daniel.

Many, many thanks to the Manjimup team, including Franzine, Bec, the Forbe's and Whittaker's for such a well-run tournament.

Also thank-you to the French's and Mike Cornish, who it was great to see at this tournament, for their backing of this series.

Thank-you to Kim Schramm for his sponsorship and support of the south-west series.

As a country player, I can say that it means a lot to have country tournaments on the junior calendar.

Finally, good luck to the WA State Team who head off to Singapore in a week or so! Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Hope to see you all on the junior circuit next year. Looking forward to New Year Bash already (and Leavers!!)

Thank you for your all your wonderful stories during the year Michaela ... they are truly appreciated!

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

WA Masters Squash Teams Tournament

This was the final Masters tournament for the year, and as traditionally been the case, it was a well-attended fun event this year, held over the weekend of 16 & 17 November.

There were six teams in all, and all the team names fully reflected the fun element of the competition. For example, it may be a bit of a worry when the Division 1 teams compete under the banners of Follies Crew, Pacers, Cut Above and What Knees? However, given the quality of the squash, it's clear these names were part of a ploy to either dupe opponents into believing that they 'had it in the bag', only to be seriously challenged for the win, or leading opponents up the garden path to believe they were in serious trouble.

While this fun element flowed through the tournament, the competitiveness and quality of the matches were top class. This tournament is a favourite and destined to remain in the Masters calendar for the foreseeable future.

Friday Night Masters

For information about the only weekly Masters event on the Masters calendar, Friday Night Masters, contact Kane on 0421 490 799, or send an email to masters@squashworld.com.au, to get involved.

End of year function

This year's gathering was held at the Balmoral Hotel in Victoria Park, and a what a well-attended and fun gathering it was, with Christmas cheer abounding.

Chris Farley once again organised a great event. She professionally and good-naturedly dealt with the complex logistics involved in organising such a successful function. Thank you from us all Chris, and let's have an even better turnout in 2020.

All that now remains is to encourage all Masters to participate in the many 2020 events that are organised for you, and to wish everyone a fabulous happy, healthy and safe festive season, and hope you all comes back with fully batteries charged ready for squash and any other challenges 2020 is sure to bring.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Vandelay Industries Cambridge Club Championships

The 2019 edition of the Squash World Cambridge Club Championships was held on 8th and 9th of November and was blessed with 51 entries!

The field ranged from our pennant players, social members, casual players.. amongst which were some that had never played a Squash tournament before!

Matches were played in nearly 40 c weather on the Saturday and some epic torturous five setters were the order of the day, for those who have never played an event before this proved to be a PERFECT introduction to competitive Squash! :)

Highlights included a super competitive Ladies Open which saw Hannah Slyth emerge victorious on count back! Michelle Hodge defeated Tracy Marshall 3-0 in the first round, Tracy then proceeded to beat Hannah 3-1 in the next round, finally, Hannah beat Michelle 3-0 to leave the calculator smoking!

Rooshab Malde came back from 2-0 down against Nick Harun to win an absorbing and tense five setter to claim the Division 1 title. Colwyn Lloyd came through some torturous encounters to claim the Division 4 title and show that his physical guru Dr Leon Musca's training is paying dividends.

Faultless performances saw Georgia Gould claim the Division 1 ladies title and father Glenn just fell short in an attempt for a family double when he lost in four to Harold Mitchell in the men's division 3 final.

In the men's open final an old chunk of coal (hoping to be a diamond) overcame a gallant and inventive Timothy Cowell in three tight games.

Once again a fantastic after party was had after presentations and went until way after the owl hoots showing once again that Cambridge is quickly developing into THE social hot spot!

Massive thanks to Kane and Simmo for their tireless work and contribution to not only this event but Squash in WA! Thanks also goes to Art Vandelay for his support of the event and his tireless contribution to the latex industry (imports and exports).
