EDITORIAL

© WA Squash - February 2020
ISSUE 47

It is so nice to see some "fresh faces" join up or even just giving squash a go!

WA Squash recently held a 2 day camp for 9-15 year olds and attracted 24 juniors whilst Blue Gum held an open day and attracted 14 juniors.

If every club held an open day on a regular basis (at least twice a year) I'm confident squash numbers would become so much healthier!

All clubs need help whether that be financial or volunteering your time.

As a volunteer there are roles to be played on committees, helping juniors, helping in canteens, helping to organise events, writing stories, writing grant applications, etc.

If you don't want to volunteer your time or expertise why not consider sponsoring an event or an athlete.

Have a chat with your Club President or local junior organiser to see how you can get involved in helping the club run an event or helping one of their promising juniors.

Once again if everyone did something that would have an enormous impact on the health of the club and the sport.

Dean's Diary

Happy New Year everyone and I look forward to a very productive 2020. January was a typical month with not a lot happening in the Squash World. Not like last year !!!

What a difference a year makes ... this time last year we were moving from The Terrace, Don resigned, learning SportyHQ software and moving into our current offices at Westminster. Not sure how we did it looking back.

The only concerns we had over the same period this time were the notices put out by the CEO of Squash Australia to our player base. Not only were these inappropriate but in some cases the comments made were not true.

It was difficult for me to counter these as we were cut off from SportyHQ. At no time had The President or The Board of Squash Australia told us that we were about to be cut off from Squash Australia.

Since those emails which a lot of players in WA received and made contact with me, the new President of Squash Australia, Jo Brodie, has done a great job in trying to sort out this issue of value for money for our affiliation fees. At the time of writing this, we are getting very close to resolving a few important matters.

Our junior camp held in late January was a big success, more on that further on in the newsletter. Thanks to Kane Fasolo, Sue Hillier and many coaches/helpers who enjoyed helping at the camp.

Our operational budget was completed and sent to clubs on time and its great to see a turnaround in the financials.

Next month on the 13th of February is the WA Sports Star Awards and it's a very special night as not only do we have some juniors nominated for awards but it also recognises the past winners where the great Barbara Wall (who won the 1979 British Open beating Sue Cogswell (UK) in the final 3-2) will be acknowledged as well as myself a past winner in 1977.

It promises to be a great night all round but also wonderful for squash to be mentioned with all the other sports stars.

VALE ... Monty Henry Jeffrey

It is with much sadness that we inform you of the passing of one of our Life Members Monty Jeffrey.

He was awarded Life membership in 1995 for his outstanding work as a volunteer in many aspects of Squash over 20 years. He was on working committees, auxiliary committees, pennant committees and the executive committee (later on changed to The Board of WA Squash).

Monty was a gentle man who was always willing to be involved. The highlight for any volunteer in those days was to be appointed a Manager of a State touring team which went to the National Carnival. Monty went on many trips in the late 60's and early seventies.

The National Carnival was for two weeks and made up of a senior men's and ladies team of 4 players and a junior under 19 team made up of 3 players. It was especially exciting as you would see the great players of the day, Hiscoe, Hunt, Nancarrow and of course the greatest female player of all time in Heather McKay.

It was a huge honour to be Manager and to make sure all the players played well and conducted themselves in the proper way and Monty was liked and respected by all.

Ian and Fay Marshall knew Monty some 55 years ago when Fay worked with him at Wilberforce and Co. Ken Watson met Monty in the fifties at Subiaco Tennis Club (STC does not exist today, it was where the new Bob Hawke College is today) where he was a handy tennis player and then a very accomplished squash player when RKP squash club opened in the late fifties.

He was passionate about his squash and everyone at WA Squash will miss his wonderful sense of humour and gentle nature.

Monty was 95 when he passed away on the 17th of January 2020.

JUNIOR SQUASH CAMP

On the 29th and 30th of January, the 2020 Junior Squash Camp was held at Squashworld Brentwood and marked the beginning of the year for junior squash in Western Australia.

The 24 juniors present, represented 8 clubs throughout WA: Broome, Bluegum, Bunbury, Katanning, Madding/Gosnells, Marmion, Mirrabooka and Vic Park. It was particularly pleasing to see the 6 juniors who travelled from Broome! Well done guys.

The camp provided a fantastic opportunity for kids to make new friends, learn off one another and have fun in an action packed 2 days of squash.

The camp was organised by Sue Hillier, with expertise from Tim Cowell, Josh Blakey, Sanny Ang, Pascale Louka and tremendous help from Katy Scott, Chris Baker, Remi Young, Erin and Dylan Classen.

True Sport and the 8 values were our focus, especially having FUN.

DAY 1:

Following an introduction and group photo, players took straight to the courts for several rounds of king of the court to determine appropriate ability levels for upcoming skills exercises.

Following on from this were exercises highlighting the fundamental shots of our game,

and aimed to teach juniors

not only how each shot is executed, but when it's most appropriate to be played. There was also a session on ghosting with 6 point movement. Coaches were each assigned a different shot, allowing them to tailor the exercise to the ability of each group.

After the lunch break juniors were tested for their Rating levels with several juniors passing on the day. The ratings are a great tool for the juniors as it gives them something to work on.

Thursday finished off with conditioned gameplay followed by a cool-down and a well-earned rest.

DAY 2:

Friday focussed on teamwork, so juniors were split into 5 teams and tasked with a number of "(10)-minute-to-win-it" challenges. These included hitting lobbs and drops into buckets, serving onto targets and a referee quiz as well as non-specific squash challenges such as the helium stick, concentration grid and paper plane challenges.

This allowed for different kids to excel regardless of their squash experience. These activities also gave older juniors a chance to showcase leadership skills as many of these challenges require such characters to step up.

I was really impressed by the way in which the teams and their leaders communicated and cooperated to achieve the best possible result. Special mention to Grace Gelman for landing her paper plane the furthest (it's still stuck at the front of court 7).

After lunch I ran a session on Game Plans. Dean Williams was there for this session and the juniors were able to hear about his matches against Geoff Hunt and asked him many questions. One question was on breaking rackets. Dean advised he broke 9 rackets in one match as they were wood in those days and easy to break.

The juniors then went onto court to play games putting the basic game plan into practice with an emphasis on a good serve.

We finished the two days with a cool down and stretches.

Overall, this year's camp ran incredibly smoothly thanks to all the work done both behind the scenes and on the 2 days. Personally, I'd like to thank all my fellow coaches.

Thank you to Squashworld Brentwood for hosting the camp (as well as the succeeding New Year's Bash tournament).

Finally, I'd also like to thank all the juniors for coming along (and the parents for taking them!), I hope to see you all again at other junior events throughout this year.

BLUE GUM

The Blue Gum Squash Club held it's first open day for new junior players on Saturday 18th January 2020. The FREE event ran for three hours, from 10.00am to 1.00pm.

The event was modelled on the Mirrabooka experience, was funded through WA Squash and supported by club volunteers. The event was advertised via Eventbrite, our website (bluegumsquash.org), our Facebook page, on physical posters at the centre, via email to all our members and potential members, and via local school newsletters.

The stats! There were 14 participants with most saying they found out about the event via FB. There were 12 boys and 2 girls. There were 3 x 7yo, 1 x 8yo, 3 x 9yo, 2 x 10yo, 2 x 11yo, 1 x 12yo, 1 x 13yo and 1 x 14yo. School Bateman PS x 4, Bertram PS x 2, Harmony PS x 2, Others x 4 SHS.

All children participated for the whole session, and most took flyers for the Blue Gum Junior programme with them. We also had a few parents enquiring about getting back into squash, which was a bonus.

The event was managed by Tim Cowell, with Sanny Ang providing support. Local volunteers included; Steve Tapley, Sai Fong, Clare Slyth, Hannah Slyth, Sterling Slyth, and myself.

WA MASTERS UPDATE

By Janis Haswell

Friday Night Masters

Season 1 of 2020 Friday Night Masters commences on Friday, February 14. Play will start at the usual time of 7:30 pm. The cost for the night remains at $12, which includes supper.

Venue: Squash World Brentwood, Disney Street, BRENTWOOD.

The Friday Night Masters is always actively seeking more players in order to keep our only weekly Masters event running. Anyone interested in joining as a regular player or as a reserve please contact Kane on 0421 490 799 or email at masters@squashworld.com.au

South West Masters Teams event

The Busselton Squash Club has again organised this popular tournament to be run from Bunbury's South West Sports Centre. It will be held over the Labour Day long weekend: Saturday 29 Feb – Monday 2 March 2020. The Busselton Squash Club, in conjunction with the Bunbury sports centre and Squash Club, always make this a fantastic tournament with plenty of games and after-squash fun. Mark the dates in your calendar and get your entries in to: busseltonsquashclub@gmail.com; Warren Oliver on 0422 598 093; or Brian Roby on 0400 938 235. The Masters committee hopes to see you all there.

Mullaloo to Marmion

Sadly, late last year Mullaloo Squash Club Members and patrons, as well as the rest of the Perth squash community, learned that Mullaloo Squash Centre was to permanently close its doors much sooner than was expected.

Many of the Club members (quite a few of them Masters members) and social players have made their way to The Squash Factory, and the centre and the club couldn't be happier about the influx of Mullaloo squashies. They have been welcomed with open arms and the centre and staff have tried their utmost to make the transition to using the facilities as seamless as possible.

The Squash Factory courts have been rocking since the arrival of enthusiastic, competitive ex-Mullaloo members keen to keep playing this great sport. An in-house competition was run in January to assist in welcoming the new players, and it was so popular and successful that it will run again through February. The January in-house teams all had Summer names, with Sounds of Summer finishing a close second to the victors, Summer Nights. Needless to say much fun was had by all involved.

WA MASTERS UPDATE By Janis Haswell

While it's sad to see another squash venue close its doors, it's fantastic to note how the squash community is making every effort to keep the sport alive. Thank you to all those Mullaloo members and players who chose to patronise The Squash Factory/Marmion Squash Club rather than giving up squash or moving further afield. I'm sure the new members as well as the courts will experience many benefits from each other.

WA Masters Squash website

As most Masters players will know, Masters Squash has its own website, but this is just a little reminder. Find the site at www.wamasterssquash.com and it's always a good starting point for anyone seeking Masters information, or contact details for the committee members. The site also holds information about the Friday Masters competition, photos from past events, information about coming tournaments, and a whole host of other details and information. Visit us there and leave a comment.
