SQUASH WA NEWSLETTER : APRIL 2022

CHAMPS DEFEND THEIR ESPERANCE TITLES

MIKE CORREN

WA SQUASH congratulates you!

ERIN CLASSEN

Congratulations ...

Erin Classen and Mike Corren on winning the Esperance Open. Both players continue to dominate the WA Open events.

It is also so pleasing to see the Esperance Open so well supported by participants and sponsors. The Club does a fantastic job presenting this event each year.

Thanks largely to Susan Cowell the Marmion Junior Classic was another major success. Great to see the club creating opportunities for our juniors. Their next event is the Marmion Junior Teams on 28th May.

Congratulations to Warren and the crew for delivering yet another SW Masters Teams event. Born in 1987 this event is a highlight on the Masters calendar. I simply love the stats they keep and how they recognise the players who compete year after year.

Good luck to all the WA juniors who will compete at the Australian Junior Open in Bendigo in early April.

The Geraldton Open has been cancelled so the WA Closed & HEAD Junior Classic will now be conducted on that weekend.

Behind the Scenes

with Leigh Kaye

Thanks for the warm wishes and congratulations from everyone on my appointment as General Manager. To the Board of WA Squash, thank you for your belief and trust in my skills, passion and ability to carry out this role in the best interest of squash in WA.

I was part of the Strategic Team that put together our Strategic plan, so I understand the organisation's priorities and where the Board would like to take WA Squash over the next few years. I acknowledge that at times it will be challenging, however, I firmly believe we have a number of skilled squashies out in the community that will be happy to volunteer their skills and work together to build our sport.

Over the past few months, we have been gathering information to create a starting point to launch from, so we can measure our progress in a years' time. Over the next few weeks, we will be working to re-build committees to assist with the improvement and building of our sport. We'd love anyone who has time and a passion for squash, perhaps in a particular area, to contact me, should you wish to be part of the bigger picture.

My door is always open, and I encourage anyone who would like to play a part in the continuous rejuvenation of WA Squash, to contact me. Whether it be ideas, suggestions or to join a committee, you don't need to have a degree, just time and passion for our sport with WA Squash and I'm looking forward to working with the squash community to strengthen and grow squash for all.

Finally, I'd like to say thank you to Dean, who has been patient and accommodating in guiding me through the role of General Manager. Having spent some time in the office with Dean, I saw how he filled the position as GM with "Dean" - his skills, his character, his ability to be out in front of people, his legacy, and what a great job he did.

Thanks again Dean and I hope we will continue to see you around squash.

Leigh

ESPERANCE

2022 squash open

By Leigh Kaye

Not even Covid could stop this amazing tournament from taking place on the long weekend in March. Masks were worn, distance was kept, cleaning was done - all the time, and a multi coloured wrist band system was used to provide surety that everyone was doing the right thing.

The weekend started with a warm welcome to all players at the Event Sponsors, Lucky Bay Brewery. With 121 entrants, 17 draws and over 230 matches, not even a fallen light at 9am on Saturday morning could stop our tournament Director Luke Jamieson from moving all matches from court 2 to other courts throughout the weekend, keeping the show on the road. Fantastic effort Luke - thank you.

The weekend was packed with some amazing games of squash, friendship and comradery. With Mike Corren taking out his 10th Mens Open title and Erin Classen taking out the ladies Open for the 2nd year in a row. Well done.

The Esperance Squash Club did not hold back when it came to the catering for the weekend, with canteen having food on tap all day, and sponsors Fish Face on Saturday night and Shark Lane Piggery on Sunday night.

Thank you to the people that make up the Esperance Squash Committee for all your time and effort in making your tournament so welcoming to all, you should proud of what you achieved over the weekend.

2022 MARMION JUNIOR CLASSIC

The 2022 Marmion Junior Squash Classic sponsored by IN FRONT AUSTRALIAN BUSINESS SOLUTIONS was held on 12 March 2022. Although our tournament numbers were down on previous years due to COVID restrictions, the standard of squash was very competitive, and excellent sportsmanship was displayed at all times. Results of the tournament were:

	Winner	Runner Up	Third	Plate
Div 1	Kiran Byles Marmion	Jonathan Groenewald Marmion	Alvaro Blackall Mirrabooka
Div 2	Kaleb Lewis Marmion	Jacob Curry Belmont	Luke Scott Belmont
Div 3	Mathys Edery Marmion	Will Rawling Marmion	Maxine Salter Marmion	Sydney Ennis Mirrabooka
Div 4	Jessica Jellis Marmion	Laney Rawling Marmion	Joey Scott Belmont	Lucas Curry Belmont

Tournament Referee David Cowell presented the Sportsmanship Award to Zander Jupp (Marmion). We only had one player withdraw due to COVID symptoms and we thank Jayden Anderson (Marmion) for filling in on the day!

At the conclusion of the individuals we then had 16 juniors compete in our timed doubles event. Two pools of 4 teams played a round robin of 6 minute matches. The top 2 teams in each pool then played another series of 6 minute matches against each other. The team with the most points was our winner! This year the teams were very evenly matched with the finals scores being within 3 points! The results were:

37 pts Jonathan Groenewald (Marmion) & Zander Jupp (Marmion)

36 pts Kiran Byles (Marmion) & Ryan Liang (Marmion)

35 pts Brendan Scott (Belmont) & Ruby Foo (Marmion)

34 pts Jacob Curry (Belmont) & Joey Scott (Belmont)

2022 SOUTH WEST MASTERS TEAMS

Story: Warren Oliver ... Thank You

55 Players from the South West and Perth competed in the 36th SW Squash Masters this year. The event was again held at the South West Sports Centre in Bunbury over the long weekend in March.

It comprised 4 Divisions with ages from 35 to late-70s. The Busselton Club ran the tournament while the Bunbury Club supplied the courts, ran the bar and the dinner. This is the largest Master's Squash event outside of Perth, and one of the longest running. Busselton was able to have representatives in all 4 divisions. 13 Busselton players entered the tournament.

The coveted Div 1 shield was taken out by the SW Allstars which included Busselton's Sean Brockman at No 1, Bunbury's Brad Grinter and Neil Meek. The SW Allstars team went thru the weekend undefeated as a team, and now Brad Grinter has his name on the prestigious Div 1 shield 7 times.

Div 2 was taken out by the undefeated Bunbury team including Mark Lush, Dale Ramage and Bec Herring, who prevailed over the Busselton team of Gys Van Zyl, Louise Moss and Warren Oliver in a very close match 6 games to 3. Mark won his match against Gys 2-1 in a match with many ups and downs as each player alternately gained ascendancy throughout. Dale won 3-0 against Louise but there were some titanic rallies that seemed to just keep going on and on. Finally, Bec was defeated by Warren 2-1 in another very close match, Bunbury has now won this division 6 out of the past 7 years.

Div 3 final saw 2 Busselton teams in the final, after both these teams went through the pool stage undefeated. With all players having played each other many times, a very close final was expected, and as it was, every game was only decided by a few points and in every match the result was 2-1 with the team of Geoff Brown, Chris Champ and Anthony Smith victors over the team of Bernie Stokes, Stu Morgan and Brian Roby. Over the weekend both Geoff and Anthony won all their matches which was a terrific effort considering this was Anthony's first Masters tournament.

Div 4 was won by the undefeated Perth team Card Shufflers made up of Terry Brookes, Nikki McCuulogh and Di Cook, who convincingly defeated the Perth team, Coy Girls, made up of Helen Coyle, Allison Williams and Chris Reston, 8-1, but this was the only loss for the weekend for the Coy Girls.

Saturday night saw 43 people socialise at a gourmet BBQ function at the Bunbury Tennis Club which recognised 27 players who have entered the tournament 10 or more times with both Moya Credaro and Ron Buswell having played in 26 out of 36 possible years, and Warren Oliver, Linda McBrierty, Chris Champ, and George Reid all having played more than 20 times. All 10 year plus players were given a Busselton squash club wine goblet as a memento.

Over the past 35 years 569 players have played at least once in the tournament, and it was great to see 9 players make their first appearance at this iconic event. In the first year, 1987, 25 players entered.

The Busselton Club would like to thank its many sponsors: Hillzeez, Down South Surf Shops, Busselton Discount Drug Store, and Wayne Evans (who has played 17 times in the tournament, and was the only player to be part of Busselton first 4 division titles starting in 2003) for supplying the very popular Crayfish in the raffle, Brian Roby and Ron Clayton (the only person here that played in the very first tournament back in 1987 and then going on to play for 24 years) for the compiling the draws.

This is a unique event in which 2 rival clubs, Busselton and Bunbury come together to run this wonderful event, with the Bunbury Club hosting the event for the past 5 years. The tournament again attracted plenty of participants this year (always room for more, though), with both the ambient temperature and the competition proving pretty hot on the squash courts. Masters are trying new tournament formats in order to keep games flowing and to facilitate the competition component to conclude at a reasonable hour (allowing time for the all-important social part of the evening).

This year each team had an A and B component. The A teams' scores were combined, as were B teams, at the end of the evenings play, and the group (A or B) that finished with the highest number of aggregated points won the night, with prizes also given to the runners up.

This format worked well, with everyone thoroughly enjoying the event, with plenty of time left for everyone to enjoy the delicious and welcome chicken and salad supper served up at the conclusion of the prize-giving, and everyone celebrating or commiserating with a few well-deserved drinks, and catching up with old and new Masters friends.

PARTICIPATION

RECOGNITION

“Modern Technology”

With modern technology available to monitor a player's physical output during training and playing a match it has become necessary to clarify how the information obtained can be utilized.

The squash rules now contain the following guidelines regarding use of this technology.

APPENDIX 10 - COACHING LIMITATIONS

Coaching

Coaching is considered to be communication, advice or instruction of any kind and by any means to a player, and during matches is only permitted in the intervals between games.

Player Analysis Technology

Player analysis technology as detailed here may be incorporated into the playing equipment of players if it allows that the equipment specification to continue to be adhered to. Any equipment affixed to the body of a player must fulfil safety and other Rules, as applicable.

Player analysis technology is equipment that may perform any of the following functions with respect to player performance information:

- A. Recording
- B. Storing
- C. Transmission
- D. Analysis
- E. Communication to player by any kind or means.

Player analysis technology may record and/or store information during a match. Such information may not be accessed by a player during a match.

Referees Responsibility

The Referee can penalise a player under Rule 15.6.10 for receiving coaching during play. The coaching can be in the form of the use of technology or by the verbal means, hand signals, ear tugging etc.

What the referee must determine is the difference between coaching and encouragement. Sometimes this is fine line.

Question of the Month ... Check out MP and the T for the answer!

John falls over during a rally. Mary makes a good return ten catches the ball on the first bounce, thinking John could not continue the rally. What is the correct ruling?

- a) Yes Let
- b) Stroke to Mary
- c) Stroke to John

Hi Squashies!

Summer is over, and it's time to chill. As the temperature slowly drops and we start the transition from hot-ball squash to cold (well cooler) ball squash, the tournament calendar is looking busier than ever.

I be-leaf many of you will not miss that drenched after-match feeling and having to wait until you stop sweating for a shower, and it's now the perfect weather to start playing drop shots!

Next month we have the WA Closed and the HEAD Junior Classic, Broome Invitational and Marmion Junior Teams Challenge to look forward to.

Speaking of tournaments, good-luck to the 6 West-Aussie Juniors heading to the Australia Junior Open at Bendigo. I hope you blow them away with you determination and talent. No matter the outcome, we will all be cheering loudly from WA.

Junior Pennants has finished for Term 1, with Belmont Team 1 taking out the Division 1 title, and Cambridge Team 2 winning Division 2. I said in my last article that fierce rivalries will be faced- and in one of our matches, there were 2 winners! As this was a timed event, Vic Park's Andreas Christou and Belmont's Brendan Scott match resulted in a 21 all-tie. There were several other matches with close score lines, making an exciting final round.

I would like to congratulate all the players for competing in this 4 week pennant round and thank all the parents and Junior Coordinators for helping out during the event. I am grateful for all your efforts. Please keep an eye on the WA Squash Website for information about Term 2 Pennants.

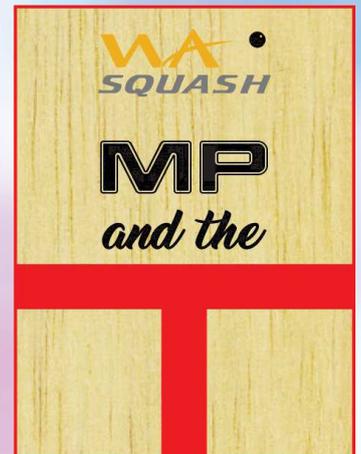

Now please excuse me as I'm off to go shopping to find something suitable to wear to the Cocktail dinner at the Hydroblast Kalgoorlie Golden Open!

Happy Squashing,

Michaela

WA MASTERS UPDATE By Janis Haswell

WA Masters has managed a good start to the year with tournaments going ahead, Friday Night Masters continuing, and the usual forward planning taking place to ensure a full year of competition and socialising for Masters players. The committee has pushed forward and is putting in all the hard work planning and running events as usual for members. Being able to have our Masters community and events carry on serves to help normalise our lives in these uncertain times, which I'm sure we're all grateful for.

The South West Masters Tournament

While numbers were down slightly for the tournament, Warren and the team still managed to put on a great tournament enjoyed by all. The usual tough tussles and interesting, competitive matches were enjoyed by all, and will certainly keep us wanting to keep attending this tournament which is one of Masters' players favourite events.

Warren Oliver, who, along with Busselton and Bunbury Squash Clubs committee members, does everything he possible can to ensure the success of the tournament. A huge thank you, Warren, for your much appreciated hard work in keeping this tournament one we don't want to miss.

Coming up

Next Masters Event: Masters Rapid Fire Tournament

'Rapid fire' has proven to be a pretty popular format for some events, so the Rapid Fire Tournament, at this stage, has again been arranged for this year. Keep watching for more information on this tournament from the Masters Committee via email.

The Australian Masters Games

Just a reminder that the Australian Masters Games are coming up in Perth in April 22, with squash scheduled at Belmont Squash Centre 23-30 April. What a great opportunity to become an Australian Squash Champion. See the website <https://australianmastersgames.com/> for more information on venues, dates sports, entries and everything else you may want or need to know about the Games. Entries close Sunday 17 April 22.

Friday Night Masters

I once again encourage Masters players to become involved in Masters Friday Night Squash. We are, as always, very keen to see some new faces joining the regulars at this fun Friday night comp. Don't forget, it is WA Masters only weekly event, so we would love to see more Masters players come along and enjoy the experience.

While the current season commenced on February 11, you can join in at any time – as a reserve or as a regular player. The comp starts at 7.30 pm at Squash World Brentwood each Friday. It only costs $15 for your night of squash, fun, friends and food. Think of it as that extra training hit to get you ahead of the pack. To get involved, either as a first timer, or as a returning Friday Night Masters player, please contact Kane on 0421 490 799, or email on master@squashworld.com.au to register to play. See you there!

WA MASTERS UPDATE By Janis Haswell

A final note

It's been a bit of a trial playing squash in these super-hot and humid conditions, but 'great effort' to those who have turned up every week and sweated it out. The temperature may be moderating, but I'm sure the competition is not. So keep up the good work, and good luck to all in your various competitions.

Don't forget to keep your eye out for the WA Masters Squash News for any updates on upcoming Masters events via your email. Also, for further information on anything related to Masters, either visit the WA Masters website at www.wamasterssquash.com or contact via email at wamasterssquash@gmail.com

Hope to see everyone around the courts at ALL the Masters events this year.
