EDITORIAL

Congratulations to Zac Alexander and Tamika Saxby for flying the Aussie flag in July.

Alexander won the NSW and Tasmania Opens whilst Saxby won the NSW and South Australian Opens.

July has been such a busy month with championships galore. So this month's edition will concentrate on bringing you all the results in one neat summary.

Queensland finalised the QJC.

NSW then held their Open and Junior Championships. Thank you to Scott Johnson who provided lots of photos.

It was certainly a busy time in the West with WA Squash holding their WA Closed, WA Junior Championships and WA Masters State Championships.

Devonport hosted the Tasmanian Open.

South Australia christened their new 5 court centre holding the SA Open and the SA Junior Championships at the ARC in Campbelltown. Thank you to James Rogers who provided photos and info from the event.

Finally, Bendigo held their PSA International to kick start the Victorian carnival.

Watch out for one of the Greatest Squash Exhibitions ever conducted in Australia. On the 9th August, Willoughby will host 7 of the biggest squash stars on one night!

AUSSIE NEWS : JULY 2016

3

Zac Alexander dominated the 2016 NSW Open cruising to a comfortable win against Aaron Frankcomb in the final 11-6, 11-7, 11-9.

Tamika Saxby began building her own winning streak with another strong performance to win the NSW Open. Saxby racked up PSA Tour title #3 in a row with a 3-0 win against Lisa Camilleri.

9

The WSF released the draws for the World Junior Championships to be played in Poland in August. Ten Aussie juniors will take part. Boys: Nicholas Calvert, William Curtis, Alex Eustace, Alex Oswald, Jon van der Kreek and Joseph White, Girls: Lauren Aspinall, Jessica Graham, Alexandra Haydon and Grace Pattison.

10

Zac Alexander successfully claimed his 7th consecutive PSA Tour title with a comprehensive 3-0 victory over Korean Ko Youngjo in the final of the Tasmanian Open.

The NSW Junior Championships came to a close in Parkes. #1 seeds Ryan Marshall and Shehana Vitana won their respective U19 blue ribbon events.

11

The Pioneer European Junior Super Series concluded. The event was played in Koln, Germany and Australia was represented by Ethan Eyles (BU15) and Joseph White (BU19). Both boys got off to a great start before getting knocked out in the 2nd round of the main draw. Eyles finished 17th and White finished 19th overall.

15

Aussie juniors can now enter the Australian Junior Championships online. The AJC is a closed championship to be held at the Thornleigh Squash Centre in NSW from the 24th September to the 2nd October.

Rhys Dowling and Mike Corren reached the semi finals of the South Australian Open. Dowling bowed out to the eventual winner, Frenchman Vincent Droesbeke in straight. Corren also lost in straight to Korean Ko Youngjo who he beat in last month's Golden Open.

16

Squash Australia named the players that will represent Australia at the 9th World University Individual Championships in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from the 5th - 11th September. The players are: Rohan Toole (NSW); Dominique Ratcliffe (NSW); Robert Palmer (NSW) and Samantha Calvert (QLD).

AUSSIE NEWS : JULY 2016

- 16 Tamika Saxby chalked up PSA Tour title #4 in succession after winning the South Australian Open at the new Aquatic Recreation Centre facility in Campbelltown. The spectacular ARC boasts 5 glass back courts with movable walls. Saxby kept her winning streak going in the PSA W5 Tour final beating Hong Kong's Tong Tsz-Wing (HKG) 12-10, 10-12, 11-7, 12-10 in the 45 minute final.
- 25 Squash Australia announced it will revamp the Australian Squash Tour in 2017 by introducing an additional prize fund to reward the top 3 male and female Australian players at the end of the Tour.
- 28 17 year old Lachlan Coxsedg (WN 451) caused a first round boil over when he beat fellow Aussie David Clegg (WN193) at the Bendigo Open. Coxsedg from Queensland was too good for the #5 seed winning 11-8, 3-11, 11-9, 11-8 in 34 minutes to record his first win on the PSA World Tour.
- 29 Australian Doubles Teams have been seeded to win two Gold medals at the World Doubles Championship in Darwin in August. The Australian pairing of Cameron Pilley and Ryan Cuskelly are the #1 seeds in the Men's Doubles whilst the Gold medalists from the 2014 Commonwealth Games, Rachael Grinham and David Palmer, have been installed as the #1 seeds in the Mixed Doubles.
- 31 Jessica Turnbull reached her first PSA Tour final at the Bendigo International. Despite being ranked higher Turnbull (WN91) found the 18 year old Egyptian Hana Ramadan (WN116) too strong in the 36 minute final. Ramadan won 11-6, 11-4, 9-11, 11-9.

Western Australia's Greg Chan won the U13B at the Hong Kong Junior Open. This was an awesome effort considering he was seeded 9-16. Chan had to fight back from 1 game to 2 down to beat Malaysian Chandaran Ameeshenraj (2) in the final 11-6, 9-11, 10-12, 11-4, 11-4. Chan was particularly impressive in the semi final where he beat the #1 seed Malaysian Lim Kai Shan Andrik 11-9, 11-9, 11-5.

Ethan Eyles (5/8) finished 7th in the U15B.

WORLD DOUBLES

By Howard Harding

Hosts Australia are predicted to take gold in two of the three events in the 2016 WSF World Doubles Squash Championships in Darwin next month according to the seedings announced today by the World Squash Federation - while Queenslander Rachael Grinham is expected to become the first player in the sport's history to win gold in three successive championships.

The championships, featuring Men's, Women's and Mixed events, will take place at the Darwin Squash Centre in the Northern Territory capital city from 15-18 August.

Grinham, the 39-year-old former world number one, will partner Cameron Pilley, the world No.14 from New South Wales, in the Mixed Doubles. Winner of the World Mixed title in 2004 in India in 2004 with David Palmer, and the 2006 gold medal on home soil in Melbourne in 2006 partnering Joseph Kneipp, Grinham is also the reigning Commonwealth Games Mixed Doubles champion after claiming the 2014 title in Scotland, again with Palmer.

Pilley also struck gold in Glasgow in the Men's Doubles - with Palmer - and reached the 2006 World Mixed final (with Amelia Pittock) where he lost out to his 2016 partner Grinham.

Pilley is bidding for a Darwin double as top seed in the Men's Doubles, with left-hander Ryan Cuskelly. Also a New South Welshman, Cuskelly is ranked 16 in the world.

Grinham is seeded to reach the Women's Doubles final, with Brisbane-based world No.21 Donna Urquhart - but it is the Indian pairing Joshna Chinappa & Dipika Pallikal who are firm favourites for gold after becoming the Commonwealth Games champions in 2014 against the odds.

Both sharing India's highest-ever world ranking of 10, Chinappa & Pallikal would become India's first ever world squash champions.

Colombia will be making their World Doubles debut. Following their Pan American Games Men's Doubles title success last year in Canada, Andres Herrera & Juan Camilo Vargas will be appearing in the Darwin championship for the first time, where they are the fifth seeds.

Compatriot Miguel Angel Rodriguez, the world No.5 renowned for his spectacular diving around the court, will be bidding to cause an upset in the Mixed championship, where he and partner Catalina Pelaez are the No.6 seeds.

WORLD DOUBLES

By Howard Harding

WSF

2014 Commonwealth Games stars Alan Clyne & Greg Lobban, the local pair who thrilled the crowds by making the bronze medal play-off in Glasgow, lead the Scottish bid for success where they are second seeds in the Men's Doubles.

But the Scots may well have to overcome third-seeded New Zealand pairing Paul Coll & Campbell Grayson to make the Men's final.

Early action in the three championships will take place in pools, before reaching the semi-finals on Wednesday 17 August and the finals the following day.

POP UP SQUASH SHOP

Based on an initiative introduced in the UK in 2013, Squash & Racquetball Victoria teamed up with Eastland Shopping Centre to transform an empty retail space (within the shopping centre) into a temporary street squash court.

The Pop Up Squash Shop was the first of its kind in Australia, and aimed at engaging people in physical activity through squash and racquetball.

The initiative was funded through VicHealth's Innovation Challenge grant.

S&RV Executive Director Fiona Young said "the Pop Up Squash shop concept was a tremendous success. It boosted the profile of both squash and racquetball by bringing the respective sports to the people".

"The concept of 'Pop Up Squash' shops brings squash and racquetball into the retail environment and provides us with an opportunity to access target groups that are traditionally difficult to reach," Young said.

"The emphasis was on introducing people to a fun and easy pathway into regular activity, and making people aware of the health and social benefits that squash and racquetball provide."

Thank you to the volunteers from the Mountain District Squash & Racquetball Club and Deakin University students who looked after the Pop Up Squash Shop and introduced newcomers to the respective sports.

Thank you to VicHealth and Eastland Shopping Centre for embracing the concept.

WA JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The WA State Junior Individual Championships were held on July 2-3 at Squashworld Mirrabooka. The event attracted 97 entries.

Erin Classen was the “star of the show” winning a double. As #1 seed in both the U13 and U15 Girls, Classen was expected to win but it was the clinical display that caught the eye. Classen dropped 6 points in the U13 and 9 points in the U15. It was another double for Classen who won the U11 and U13 Girls State titles in 2015.

U13 Australian Junior Open Champion Greg Chan maintained his edge over runner up Oscar Curtis with a strong 9-11, 11-6, 11-9, 11-5 victory.

WA JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

CLASSEN DOUBLE

Erin Classen was the “star of the show” winning the U13 and U15 double.

Most kids dream about winning one State title but this young lady dreams BIG!

In 2015 Classen won the U11 and U13 double at the WA State Champs.

CHAN THE MAN

Greg Chan maintained his position as the best U13 player in Australia with a 3-1 win over Oscar Curtis.

WA boasts the best 4 players in Australia (U13 Boys) so Chan is able to keep a very close eye on his main opposition.

Chan is the current Australian Open and Closed Champion.

TASMANIAN OPEN

27 year old Zac Alexander stretched his impressive run to 7 PSA Tour titles when he took out the Tasmanian Open in ruthless fashion.

The Queeslander has also stretched his winning streak to 30 matches in a row!

Alexander was clinical in the final defeating Korean Ko Youngjo 11-8, 11-1, 11-4 in 30 minutes.

Alexander has not dropped a game in his last 3 PSA Tour events: City of Perth WA Open, NSW Open and now the Tasmanian Open. That's 36 games to nil!
