ZAC ALEXANDER WINS

TRIPLE CROWN

Q OPEN ♦ MACKAY ♦ CAIRNS

EDITORIAL

Merry Christmas to all the readers of Queensland Squash News.

I hope you have a safe and relaxing time over Xmas. Enjoy yourself catching up with family and friends.

Congratulations to Zac Alexander for winning the Queensland Triple Crown.

Alexander won the Queensland Open at Nerang, the Mackay Open and the Cairns International over 3 consecutive weekends.

What a year it has been Queensland's #1 player. Besides working full time for Squash Australia, Alexander has managed to win 8 PSA titles!

The Brisbane Open was a huge success at the Redcliffe PCYC.

Thanks to the fantastic support of the Moreton Bay Regional Council and other sponsors the event was upgraded to a PSA Closed Satellite and attracted some of the best players around.

The Women's Open featured two of the best players in the World - Top 20 I might add!

England's W#18 Jenny Duncalf and our very own W#19 Rachael Grinham reached the final and entertained the crowd for 41 minutes.

Thank you to our wonderful photographer Toni van der Kreek for covering the Pan Pacific Masters Games and the Brisbane Open.

OUR PSA PLAYERS

Zac Alexander won the Cairns International and was runner up in the Brisbane Open (PSA Closed Satellite) during November. Alexander completed the “Triple Crown” winning the three PSA events held in Queensland held over 3 consecutive weekends: the Queensland Open, the Mackay Open and the Cairns International.

Thomas Calvert has been very consistent of late. Calvert has reached the Quarter Finals at his last 4 events. Calvert just needs a breakthrough win to reach a semi final and his confidence and ranking will soar.

Rachael Grinham finished runner up in the Brisbane Open final but bombed out in the 1st Round of the PSA W25 Monte Carlo Classic to Canadian qualifier Hollie Naughton 11-8, 4-11, 11-13, 1-11 (36m).

Matt Hopkin reached the semi finals of the Brisbane Open (PSA Closed Satellite). Hopkin returned to the World Top 100 and is now 6 places off his career best ranking.

Solayman Nowrozi hasn't had much luck recently. Despite reaching the Quarter Finals at his last two events the 19 year old has had to face the might of Zac Alexander on both occasions. At the Mackay Open Nowrozi lost in 20 minutes 4-11, 4-11, 3-11 but in Cairns he lost in 31 minutes 4-11, 9-11, 5-11.

Jessica Turnbull reached the semi finals of the Cairns International. Turnbull lost to eventual runner up and Queensland Open finalist Milnay Louw 5-11, 8-11, 9-11 (29m). Turnbull achieved a new career high of 73 as at 1st December 2016.

Matthew Hopkin returned to the World Top 100
Solayman Nowrozi achieved a new HWR
Joel Luca achieved a new HWR

The Backyard Birdies Story

By Lisa Camilleri

Since the age of 16, I have dedicated every part of my life to squash. It's a hard commitment because you're not just dedicated for a day, a week or a year.

It's a commitment for a 1/5 of your life. For a period of time where your body can withstand high performance elite training and competition.

It's a decision where you have to leave your family and move to where the training and competition takes you.

It's a decision where you now need to have the determination and the will to eat, live and breathe your sport.

By doing this you can give yourself the best chance of becoming the best athlete you can possibly be.

During these competitive years you encounter a lot of your family, friends and outsiders saying, "you don't have an education, and you won't have anything to fall back on once your squash career is over".

Well I can say that this is so far from the truth. If you're open-minded, I believe your sporting career is the best apprenticeship you can experience.

You learn life skills, you meet and see so many different cultures and people around the world.

You also learn how to fend for yourself, you learn resilience, you learn how to be organised and you learn how to set goals.

For me I have always dreamed of being an entrepreneur. The thought of working for myself and running my own business is the ultimate!

During 2015 I worked for Squash Australia as the High Performance Administrator/Go to person. And in this role one of my tasks was to source green and gold uniforms for the Women's World Team Championships.

I quickly learnt that finding good quality, comfortable, stylish outfits in team colours was not easy.

The Backyard Birdies Story

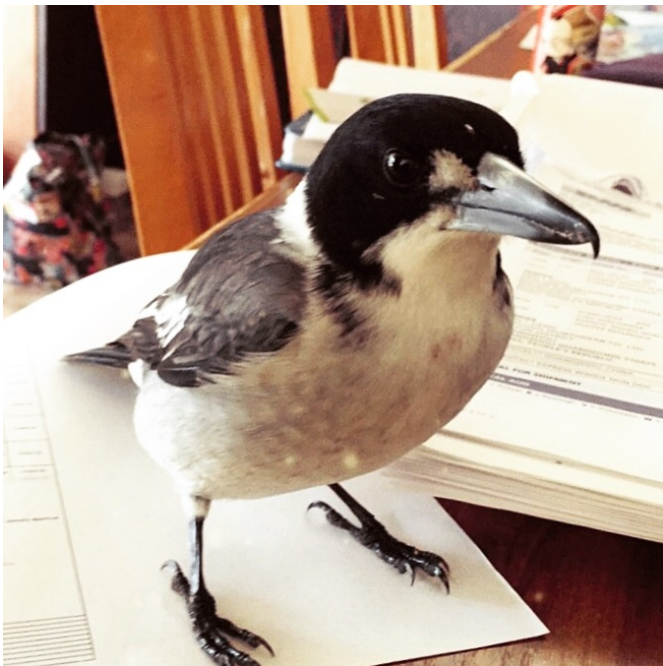

Marcus and I at one of our manufacturer's factories.

There was not a lot of variety and not a lot of stylish outfits out there to choose from.

This is where I discovered there was a Niche market and from there 'Backyard Birdies' was created.

Backyard Birdies is owned and run by myself and my partner Marcus. I've had many people ask me where did the name "Backyard Birdies" come from?!

Pepe in the office helping me with designing sports apparel.

Marcus and Manny having fun!

Well, Marcus and I love the outdoors. With our love of the outdoors, nature, and a connection wildlife we have several little visitors that visit our backyard every day to hang out.

We have a family of Magpies - Manny, Mumma and Baby, 3 Butcher birds - Pepe, Kooee and P.J. and finally, Trevor the Kookaburra. This is how the name "Backyard Birdies" was started.

I will always be grateful to squash for the life skills it has given me, and I hope in some small way, Backyard Birdies encourages other athletes to take risks, to try new things, to redefine ... And to not let anyone persuade you from your dreams.

The Scarborough Squash Club, based at Redcliffe PCYC, hosted the 2016 Brisbane Squash Open from 11-13 November.

The Club would like to extend a huge and heartfelt thank you to all the sponsors, players and volunteers who supported the tournament.

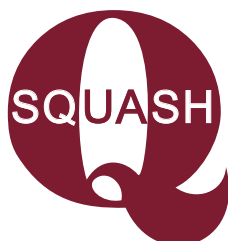

The tournament was a huge success on many levels. The participation numbers increased by 33% from last year with a mix of male and female juniors to masters. Our own club was well represented in all divisions and the tournament included players from all over Brisbane, Coffs Harbour, Gladstone, Mackay, and as far as New Zealand and England.

The Men's Open Winner was Australian Josh Larkin, currently ranked 88 in the world, and the Women's Open Champion was Jenny Duncalf from England, currently ranked 18 in the world. Jenny had some wonderful positive things to say about Redcliffe and Brisbane in her speech.

It was fantastic to have so many people traveling to Redcliffe for the tournament and to hear positive feedback about the weekend and the location. The Club is already looking forward to next year and have some plans in place to make it bigger and better and we look forward to partnering with our fantastic sponsors again.

The 2016 Brisbane Open boasted a quality field worthy of a higher PSA classification. The Men's Draw featured 3 of the 4 semi finalists from the Queensland Open.

The top 4 seeds fought out the semi finals with Zac Alexander and Josh Larkin qualifying for the final. The pair last met at the Queensland Open where Alexander prevailed 11-9, 6-11, 11-8, 11-7 in 56 minutes.

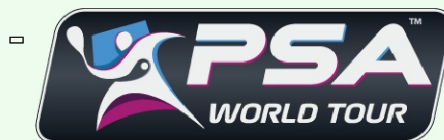

In their first three encounters Alexander was too strong winning on each occasion in straight. At the Q Open Larkin stretched the match to 4 games. It has taken 5 matches but Larkin has finally broken through and recorded his first victory over Alexander in four.

Alexander began strongly winning the first but from there on Larkin dominated the 50 minute match winning the next 3 games fairly comfortably.

The Women's event featured a former W#1 (Rachael Grinham) and W#2 (Jenny Duncalf) plus Tamika Saxby who has won 5 PSA titles on the domestic circuit this year.

As expected Grinham and Duncalf won their way through to the final without dropping a game. Grinham took care of Saxby in three whilst Duncalf knocked out local hopeful Samantha Foyle.

In the final W#18 Duncalf won a tight opening game before W#19 Grinham bounced back and won the 2nd by a similar margin - just two points!

Unfortunately, for Grinham, Duncalf wasn't phased by the toughness of the first two games. She put the foot down and ran out a strong winner 11-5, 11-5 to win the clash in 41 minutes.

Juniors Courtney Mather and Mackenzie Sleep performed well above expectation. Both girls upset seeded opposition to reach the Quarter Finals.

The Top 4 seeded players fought out the semi finals in both the Men's and Women's Open.
